“ Sincere condolences for your loss. Cherish loving memories of laughter and times spent together, and may those memories bring you joy and warm your heart. Losing someone we love dearly can leave us feeling lost and heartbroken, but we can lean on God. Psalm 34:18 says "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart, And those who are crushed in spirit he saves". Revelation 21:4 assures us that soon death will be no more, and Acts 24:15 holds out the hope of the resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in death. May this bring you a measure of comfort at this very difficult time.

“ Aunt Lisa, I am so heart broken that you were taken from us so soon! I have so many great memories with you, knowing how much I loved going to the airport to watch the planes when I was younger, You used to stop at 7-11 and get us slurpies then drive us out to the airport to watch the planes, also driving in your BIG BROWN CAR and you letting me lean over and steer the car around the neighborhood...Or how about the time that I wanted to go with you somewhere and you didn't want us coming, so we hid under a blanket in the back seat of your car and drove around for EVER and you didn't know we were back there till we made a noise and scared you LOL rather than you getting upset with us you started laughing. I could go on and on with all the crazy fun memories. You are going to be missed so much!! You are so loved by SO MANY people, you have made an impact on so many peoples lives. I love you and I am going to miss you so much. I am saddened that you didn't get to meet my little man Dominic! I know he would have loved his GREAT Aunt Lisa!!

“ Lisa you will be missed by me and my boys, your older son tutored my younger son and you helped my older son and his class at Bedford School and both my sons loved you. You showed to care about the kids a lot. The friends and families and kids will all miss you because you always showed that you cared about them. May you rest in peace now . You have done a great job.

“ Aunt Lisa, there are so many memories, I don't even know where to begin. You carrying on Papa's nick name for me "Dinanna" , sleeping in your water bed with you, crazy drives in your car, countless slurpee stops at 7-11, hanging out at the corner party store, dance parties and silly stories are just a few. I'm going to miss your amazingly giving heart and countless encouraging words. Also, the excitement and love you have for every baby that is born, your FB posts sharing what recipe of Grams you are cooking and your animated personality. I can go on and on.

I love you so much Aunt Lisa!!! My heart is broken that you were taken from us so soon, but I thank God for the time he allowed me to have with you. You will forever be in my heart <3

All my love,
Dinanna

Lisa, unfortunately, I just found out about your passing....I've been sick, in and out of the hospital, but I'm in shock at the moment. You passed away right before my Birthday last year.....I will miss our talks and laughs.....you and I were good support for each other.....I'll never forget that.....may you soar with the Angels in Heaven. Love to you and prayers for your kids and family. I'll never forget our fun times in CC1!.....Love You Leese!!!.....Kathy(aka....Kat...aka...katwilliams37)
