“ May you see God's light on the path ahead
When the road you walk is dark.
May you always hear,
Even in your hour of sorrow,
The gentle singing of the lark.
When times are hard may hardness
Never turn your heart to stone, May you always remember when the shadows fall—
You do not walk alone. ~ Irish Blessing Smiling at the memories of all the good times I had with your family growing up...please know you are in my thoughts and prayers. With much love, Dee

“ My favorite memory of grandpa was walking to Jays Market to get Necos the best candy around. And listening to him play the piano. I love you grandpa and will miss you dearly. Now you are an angel of God with mom and I know you both are watching over us all.

“ he and I talking were talking once about how much different (better and tougher) sports and athletes were back in the day. we get to talking about hockey fights and boxing and how badly the noses of some of these guys would end up. he points to his nose and says "look at this. I was a boxer once" straight faced. dead pan. I was undefeated shadow boxing champion.

rest in peace grandpa foley.
